I tried to enjoy this book and read about pages before I gave up. Then again, I've heard so many opinions on Slade, the man, it's clear to me there is little consensus. It builds sonically throughout with simple yet precise synth and piano motifs all while building towards the climatic double-bridge, which sandwiches the best guitar lead on the entire album.

Either way, I always keyword-optimize my content.

In recognition of Prof. But science can work in collusion with metaphysical Ave. And was the answer to that question right in front of my face.
